

Maldwyn Morgan

First Bass 1947-1955 & 1994-2007, Long Service Member

September 15th 1926 – September 18th 2007

Mal was one of five brothers who all sang in the ranks of the Treorchy Male Choir. The son of well-known Conductor Arthur Morgan, Mal joined the Choir when it was only a few months old, but his employment in the car industry necessitated him to move to England to work. On his return to Wales almost forty years later he re-joined the Choir and was awarded Long Service Membership posthumously. The brother of former secretary Islwyn Morgan, the pair were inseparable and Mal was missed by us all.
