First Bass 1946-2003; Founder Member, Long Service Member, Life Member

July 4th 1918 - June 30th 2003

Eilir, who lived in Regent Street, Treorchy, was part of the foundation from which the Choir progressed. He was a member of a the pre-war Choir, as was his father before him. He worked in the local colliery and was a faithful member of Bethlehem Chapel. He served the Choir for almost fifty years until ill health restricted his attendance, although he remained faithful to the organization.
