

Jack Moses

Second Tenor 1979-2007; Long Service Member

May 17th 1923 – May 4th 2007

Jack joined the Choir in 1979 and was a faithful chorister for almost thirty years. Born in Ystrad, he was educated at Tonypany Grammar School and served in the RAF during the Second World War where he trained as a radio operator. He later worked for Rhondda Borough Council and became its Chief Auditor. Armed with his pipe, Jack was a memorable figure in the life of the Choir and that of Ystrad Conservative Club where he was a dedicated member.
